Bedroom

The Selene collection has a wide selection of single beds crafted by expert craftsmen which can be combined with a night table finely decorated with friezes and carvings in full baroque style. Even a simple armchair can make the difference in sets like this, elegant, minimal, and always comfortable.

Single beds

The three single beds of the Selene collection take up the shapes and decorations of the Iride set, which could be combined beautifully in a luxurious home. The three models differ for the headboards, the beds and the footboards which can be in wood panels or tufted headboard or with upholstered bed frame according to the customer's needs.

Night table

The night table belonging to the Selene collection has a wide drawer with shapes. The decorations finely worked are never excessive but rather highlight at its best the structure matching perfectly to the shapes designed for the models of the beds.
